The Family Justice Center (the “Center”) is a warm and welcoming one-stop center for victims of interpersonal violence (IPV) -- domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, elder abuse, and human trafficking. The Center serves victims and survivors regardless of their income, immigration status or location. We meet survivors where they are and help them through the process of healing and self-empowerment. The Center is a public-private partnership committed to creating a vibrant community free of coercion and fear. It supports the West Center located in Richmond, the Central Center in Concord, East Center in Antioch, and the Solano Center in Fairfield.

POSITION SUMMARY:

We are accepting applications for one Clinician for the Solano Center in Fairfield. (Spanish-bilingual preferred). This is a non-exempt position reporting to the Clinical Director. We provide generous fringe benefits, including paid holidays, annual and sick leave, health insurance coverage, dental and vision coverage, and retirement benefits. This position is contingent on grant funding. Employment is dependent on the availability and continuation of these funds.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Conduct screening interview with all incoming clients, including needs assessment, safety plan, service plan, and follow-up plan.
- Complete required training, provided by the Family Justice Center, in Cognitive Behavioral Interventions for Trauma in Schools (CBITS) and Bounce Back, adapting these school-based therapies for use at the Solano center.
- Carry a caseload of individual clients (50 clients per year) and provide individual and group therapy using the CBITS and Bounce Back models.
- Participate in ongoing case-planning with Family Justice Navigators.
- Monitor program deliverables and evaluation.
- Assist with grant reporting.
- Perform other duties, functions, special projects, and responsibilities as assigned and deemed necessary by the Clinical Director.
- Flexibility to work evenings and weekends is essential to meet the needs of our youth clients and their families.
